

F. 3

Every week

1. Download Oxford iSolution <https://www.oupchina.com.hk/en/elearning/ebook-n-assessment/isolution/download> in your PC/Mac/iPad/Android Tablets (Smartphones NOT supported) and do the auto-marking:

- i. comprehension (all units, especially Unit 5 Showtime!),
- ii. vocabulary (all units, especially Unit 5 Showtime!),
- iii. grammar (all grammar items, especially Present and Past Participles as Adjectives and Using To-Infinitives and Gerunds), exercises in the e-Activities , OLA and Grammar App icons.

Login is required. Your login name is 'tkp + 19 + your class + your class number', e.g. tkp191A40. The default password is '12345678' for all students. Please change your password after you have logged in.

Login name : e.g. tkp191A40

Password : 12345678

If you have further questions, you may refer to their installation guidelines.

<https://www.oupchina.com.hk/zh/elearning/ebook-n-assessment/isolution/user-guide/install#install>

2. Revise the following sentence patterns and prepare for dictation after classes resumed.

- a) In spite of the rain, we went on the picnic.
- b) It is necessary (for us) to respect the elderly.
- c) It is important (for you) to improve your English.
- d) Students should have a sense of belonging in school.
- e) The athlete felt a great sense of achievement when he won a gold medal.
- f) I suggest offering him the contract.
- g) I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your support
- h) We tend to believe rumours.
- i) I need experience to get a job but without a job I can't gain experience- it's a vicious cycle.
- j) When it comes to computers, he is an expert.

Week 1 (17-21/2/2020)

1. Finish Short Writing Task 3 The English Week. Hand it in on Thursday.
2. Watch YouTube video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iwWMq4o7zkE&t=9s> to learn Present and Past Participles as Adjectives
3. Do the auto-marking comprehension, vocabulary and grammar exercises in iSolution.